To All Nova Scotia Elected Officials and Chief Administrative Officers/Village Clerks:

I am writing to inform you of an update on the municipal and village codes of conduct. In January 2022, the Code of Conduct Working Group was established to develop a set of recommendations on the code of conduct framework, which included content to include in the code, sanctions that may be imposed if a breach occurred, and options for an investigator model. This collaborative working group included representatives from the Nova Scotia Federation of Municipalities (NSFM), the Association of Municipal Administrators of Nova Scotia (AMANS), the Association of Nova Scotia Villages (ANSV), and the Department of Municipal Affairs and Housing (DMAH).

Following significant consultation with municipalities in September 2022, March 2023, and September 2023 on the code of conduct framework, the Code of Conduct Working Group developed 25 recommendations for me to consider as Minister. I am pleased to advise, after careful consideration, I am accepting all 25 recommendations presented by the Code of Conduct Working Group. The recommendations, along with the anticipated framework are appended to this letter for your reference.

The code of conduct framework will be coming into effect following the October municipal election. The legislative provisions require municipalities and villages to adopt a code of conduct consisting of the model code of conduct as outlined in the regulations. As Minister, I will prescribe that all municipalities and villages must adopt the model code of conduct within 60 days following the October election and provide confirmation of their notice of adoption. Should a municipality or village fail to meet the above requirements, municipal funding will be withheld pursuant to the Municipal Grants Act. As one of the first items to discuss on your agendas, I trust this will bring an unequivocal understanding of the conduct to uphold as an elected official in Nova Scotia.

I understand and recognize that code of conduct training is an important component to make the framework successful. The NSFM will be the lead organization on the development of a robust code of conduct training module, and it is expected this module will be available in early 2025. To bridge the gap between when the regulations will be in place to when the robust training module will be ready in early 2025, the Department will provide municipalities and villages resources that can be shared with councils and commissions.

As we move toward a new standard for elected officials following the election, I would encourage you to share the documents appended in this letter with all candidates running in the upcoming municipal election. Candidates should be notified about the new expectations surrounding the code of conduct.

In closing, I would like to thank the Code of Conduct Working Group members for their hard work and dedication to this initiative over the past two years. This initiative is a wonderful example of collaboration between the Department and our municipal partners.

Sincerely,

Proposed Recommendations from Code of Conduct Working Group

The Code of Conduct Working Group (COCWG) has developed their proposed recommendations for the code of conduct regulations for the Department of Municipal Affairs and Housing (DMAH) to review. The 25 recommendations below reflect the consensus opinion from the COCWG.

Application:

- There should be one code for all municipalities and villages.
- The code of conduct should operate together and as a supplement to other applicable laws, including the bylaws and policies with the municipality or village.
- The code of conduct should apply to elected officials at all times with respect to their behaviour regarding any action that negatively impacts the municipality or tarnishes its reputation.
- Nothing in the code of conduct is intended to silence elected officials from sharing or expressing dissenting opinions.
- The code of conduct should apply from the time elected officials are declared elected until their resignation, their disqualification, or their successor being sworn into office.

Content to include:

- The code will include 45 provisions under various headings (e.g. general conduct, confidential information, etc.) See Appendix A for detailed provisions.
- 13 possible sanctions that can be imposed on a member for breaching the code of conduct. See Appendix B for the sanctions.
- 7 considerations elected officials shall evaluate before they can impose a sanction. See Appendix B for detailed considerations.
- Failure to comply with a sanction imposed is considered a breach of the code itself and will go to council with the investigator's recommendation only.

Complaint and investigator process:

- Municipalities and villages will appoint an investigator and have their contact information readily available on their website. See Appendix C for detailed complaint and investigator process.
- Investigators should have experience in conducting investigations, and experience applying the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.
- No conflict of interest can exist between the investigator and the parties involved.
- A complaint can be submitted no later than 6 months from discoverability.
- The CAO/Clerk shall be notified by the investigator that a complaint has been received and Council/Commission shall be notified if a complaint makes it to the investigation stage.

- The investigators report shall be brought to council/commission no later than 6 months from the time the complaint is received by the investigator. Extensions may be granted by council/commission for extenuating circumstances.
- Any complaints brought forward during the municipal election period between nomination day and ordinary polling day will not be investigated until the election has concluded.
- A member who has a complaint lodged against them will be able to review and respond to the information in the investigators report prior to council's vote.
- A member who has had a complaint lodged against them, or who has made the complaint, may not participate in the vote on whether there was a breach, and if applicable, may not participate in the decision regarding what sanction to impose.
- The Code of Conduct will state that a decision of a Council on a code of conduct matter is final and binding on all parties.
- At the conclusion of the investigation, require public disclosure of the section a complaint was lodged under, and the investigator's recommendation.

Training:

- Elected officials should be required to complete the training within 30 days of being sworn into office and failure to do so is considered a breach of the code itself and may go to council without an investigation.
- Any breach of the code determined by council shall result in additional code of conduct training for the person who committed the breach.
- Training to be developed and delivered in an online module format with quizzes and a minimum pass rate to ensure a minimum level of understanding.

Review:

- A review on the code of conduct shall begin 3 years post implementation to consider the effectiveness for municipal elected officials.
- Review the Municipal Elections Act (MEA) to see if there is potential to reduce the gap between the sanctions in the code of conduct and the Municipal Elections Act.
